SURROGATE SPOTLIGHT

This month we would like to introduce:

Bounxon

My first journey began in 2015, I made one of the best decisions of my life. I combined my love of helping another family with my love of being pregnant and became a gestational surrogate. My first journey resulted in success. I conceived in March 2016 a healthy baby girl. I couldn't be happier for my intended mother.

Conceptual Options has never ceased to amaze me, from the early stages of applying and getting matched with recipients straight through to my delivery. The support they provided before and after the baby was born was wonderful. Words can't express how impressed I've been with Conceptual Options. They have been incredibly thorough and truly care about providing an optimal experience to each and every one of their surrogates and intended parents. They made sure I was paired with intended parents that were well-suited for me. Though more than a thousand miles separated us, we couldn't have been better matched. I was honestly so pleased with Conceptual Options that I decided to go through a second journey as a gestational surrogate with them and I couldn't have made a better choice. Conceptual Options is like family to me and I will always be grateful to have found such a wonderful agency.

The support from the other surrogate mothers I came to know through support group was also unbelievable. It became one of my most favorite things about the whole experience.

It didn't matter one bit that the little one growing inside of me wasn't genetically mine. My happiness that day was for the couple whose family would soon be growing by one.

I was blessed with an easy and uneventful pregnancy with my second journey and the delivery went exactly as we had hoped. With outstanding support from my intended parents during my labor, I was able to give them the birth they wanted for their child. By doing that for them, I also came to realize how much it gave back to me. I had never felt such empowerment as I did that evening, and February 2019, is a day I will never forget. It ranks right up there with the birth of my own two children and baby girl I gave birth to as a gestation surrogate. Words can't describe how I felt when I saw the intended parents catch the first glimpse of their newborn son – nor can they describe the completeness I am sure they felt that day. I am incredibly honored to have been able to help them achieve their dream of bringing a child into this world with gestational surrogacy, and am filled with such happiness every time I get an update or see a new picture of him. There truly is no greater gift a woman can give.
