SURROGATE SPOTLIGHT

This month we would like to introduce:

When my husband and I decided to have a baby it was so exciting! We were about to embark on an amazing journey! But each time my period came it was heart wrenching. It would be years before we were lucky enough to bring our baby boy into this world.

He changed everything. I couldn't believe how much my heart had grown since the moment I held him in my arms! We wanted to give him the moon and stars. We felt that surrogacy would be perfect for us. We know the pain of wishing so hard for a special little someone and questioning whether it was even possible. It warms the heart to be able to give this chance to someone else.
