SURROGATE SPOTLIGHT

This month we would like to introduce:

Shelby

I'm Shelby, a 33 year old mom of four located in Southern Colorado. Over a year ago, I was inspired to look into surrogacy after a close friend shared her egg donation story with me. She had donated multiple times and helped multiple people become families. I thought she was amazing!

I had always wanted to help others, but with four kids of my own, I knew foster or adoptive care was not in the cards for us. This is when I learned about surrogacy and how I could help someone achieve the family the heart had longed for. I soon realized I met the requirements and decided that I would move forward.

I am currently 12 weeks pregnant for a deserving couple and couldn't be more excited to watch them become parents this fall! Surrogacy is an amazing gift and now is a part of my story. I have an amazing support team of family and friends and I feel very blessed to share this journey with them!
