SURROGATE SPOTLIGHT

This month we would like to introduce:

Valarie

* Valarie is currently 26 weeks pregnant with a baby boy!*

Hello everyone! My name is Valarie and I just turned 29 years old. I am a Super Surrogate with Conceptual Options; and grateful to say I am currently 26 weeks pregnant with a due date of December 7th. Baby boy will be here in no time! Can't express how excited I am.

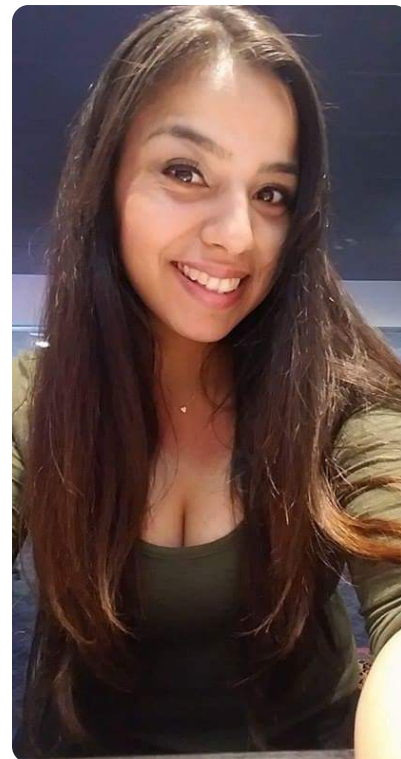

I am proud to say I am happily married to a wonderful man whom serves our country. I am also a proud stay at home mommy to a handsome 9 year old boy, Erik, and to a 2 year old beautiful toddler named Kayla. Terrible twos have arrived but having children is such a blessing; so it's all good!

I never realized many women around the world have trouble conceiving. I didn't discover surrogacy, had no clue this was an option, until I was watching a Lifetime surrogacy movie. It made me curious so I googled more about surrogacy. Being that I have had two easy pregnancies I decided I should apply. I felt like I qualified and also felt strongly that I should help a woman, a couple, or any person have their dream child. I was a stay at home mom at the time and knew I wouldn't go back to school or work for the next two years so that I can raise my little girl- so why not be a surrogate? Why not help someone?

My husband was skeptical about the whole thing but also read into it and saw how serious I was, so he hopped on the wagon. We are currently happy with our two children and don't plan on having anymore for a while. I don't mind being pregnant so I felt even more happy to proceed with the application to become a Super Surrogate with Conceptual Options. I don't regret it one bit; and if my husband says yes, I will do this all over again.

The surrogacy journey for me is one that I will never forget and will always talk about. I have been spreading the word to friends and family so they can also let people know that we need more surrogates. The science and the love behind surrogacy just amazes me. I'm more than half way through my first surrogacy journey and excited to give birth and hand off a dream baby.

Conceptual Options is by far the best agency. They make this whole process so fun, and easy. They have been there to answer any of my questions. They make sure all their surrogates are happy and healthy. I feel like I am part of a family with them. Raffles are just a bonus! I wouldn't go anywhere else.
